Interviewer: _____ Guest: _____

1. When you were a student in school, did you like math? Why or Why not?

2. Please give us a few examples of how you use math in your personal life.

3. Are you able to do some calculations in your head or do you prefer to use a calculator? If you use mental math, could you give us some examples.

4. Please give us a few examples of how you use math at work.

5. How often would you say you use your math skills and knowledge for either your personal use or on your job?

   Daily Several Times a Week Once a Week Less than Once a Week

6. What advice would you give to us and the students in our class about the importance of math?